SHAMROCK ELECTION Premier picks March 17 for by-election

by Jerry Grozelle

ATTILLA THE UN: PC leader Mike Harris repeatedly promised Thursday to "unregulate, unlegislate, unhire and untax" until a balance between the public and private sectors is restored.

Harris promises to cut bureaucracy

The past 10 years have been "a lost decade" for Ontario, Conservative leader Mike Harris told audiences from Lindsay to Wilberforce last week.

Throughout the hectic, day-long tour of the riding last Thursday, Harris and local PC candidate Chris Hodgson told the large gatherings that the Liberal and NDP governments have managed to stifle the economy by driving up taxes, broadening the bureaucratic red tape and running up the debt.

The tour was the first major event of the election campaign and it drew large crowds at all five stops. More than 50 business leaders turned out to an early-morning breakfast meeting in Lindsay. This was matched by similar crowds in Bobcaygeon, Minden, Haliburton and Wilberforce.

And at each stop, the mes-

Victoria-Haliburton voters will be going to the polls on St. Patrick's Day to choose their next Member of Provincial Parliament.

Premier Bob Rae announced last week that a by-election to fill this riding's seat at Queen's Park will be held on March 17.

Three candidates will be wooing voters over the next few weeks. So far no "fringe" candidates have announced an intention to run for the provincial seat.

Chris Hodgson of Haliburton is representing the Progressive Conservative party; Sharon McCrae of Ops Township, is the Liberal candidate, and Art Field, a resident of Little Britain, is running for the New Democrats.

The main theme for both Hodgson and McCrae is job creation albeit from different directions. Field, on the other hand, is counting on voter support relating to his party's track record.

The Conservative strategy for job creation is a long-range plan.

"It means restoring an economic climate that promotes businesses and creates the infrastructure to attract and support competitive industry, agriculture and tourism," Hodgson said.

McCrae says the solution to economic recovery is job creation at the local level.

"Municipalities must work co-operatively with both the provincial and federal government to create long-term, sustainable employment here in our community," she said.

Field is confident that Victoria-Haliburton residents will understand that the policies introduced by the NDP government are the best for all of the people of the province, even though some of those policies have been unpopular.

"I am proud of the accomplishments of our government in their efforts to bring fiscal and social responsibility to our province," he said.

Advance polling may be particularly important in this area since the election falls during the school March break. That is a traditional time for many to seek respite from the winter doldrums in the sunny south.

The by-election in this riding was called to replace NDP-turned-Independent MPP Dennis Drainville, who gave up his provincial seat to run unsuccessfully in the federal election.

More Mush

For those who just can't get their fill of "mush", there's yet another opportunity to see the 10th anniversary of the Minden Tech-Cal Challenge -- and this time there's no need to be cold.

TSN was in Minden to film the sled dog derby on January 22 and 23 and the premier showing of this footage will be aired on March 5 at 8 p.m.

Kinmount's banking on local support for credit union bid

by Jerry Grozelle

"Kinmount needs a bank!"

This is the plea expressed in a questionnaire which has been circulated in the tax bills of three townships in the Kinmount area.

Somerville, Snowdon and Galway townships have included the questionnaires with their first tax bills of 1994.

Bob Mitchell, Chairman of the Northern Community Network Credit Union Committee says he will be happy if 25 per cent of the questionnaires are returned, adding: "The more responses we get, the better the chances of getting a credit union in Kinmount. But even if we do have a good response, there are absolutely no guarantees (that a credit union will be established in the community)."

The questionnaire is a major part of a feasibility study to determine if there is enough support in the area to establish a credit union.

The importance of this questionnaire to the people in the area who wish to have a banking outlet can't be overstated. Without the initial support that the questionnaire represents, the project is doomed from the start. The degree of support from area residents and cottagers will determine whether or not the project moves past this first step.

Kinmount has been without a banking facility since the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce closed its doors in September of 1992.

EARLY RESPONSE

Mitchell says that even though the tax bills have only been sent out recently, some response is starting to come in from taxpayers who live as far away as Hamilton, Markham and Whitby.

The questionnaire asks whether respondents would be interested in learning more about the proposed credit union, if they would be willing to commit some time as a volunteer to assist in the formation, promotion or internal work of a credit union and what services they would utilize if such a facility were established.

It also asks for basic personal information and some employment related questions.

Although respondents are asked to provide names and addresses so further information can be sent to them, it is made clear that all responses will be held in the strictest confidence.

For those in the area who may be interested in the services that could be provided by a credit union in Kinmount and didn't get a questionnaire in their tax bills, the forms are available at Scott's IGA in Kinmount, the Norland Trading Company and the Tank and Tummy (Petro Canada station) in Norland.

Completed forms can be returned directly to Bob Mitchell (the address is on the form) or at the IGA in Kinmount.

O'Reilly backs tobacco tax cuts

Victoria-Haliburton's MP has come out in favour of the tax cuts on tobacco products which are designed to curtail smuggling.

"I am extremely satisfied with the Prime Minister's approach to deal with the problem of cigarette smuggling," he said in a news release.

The Liberal government plan went into effect last Wednesday. The federal government cut cigarette taxes by $5 a carton in order to compete with the low prices offered by cigarette smugglers. It has also offered to match provincial tax reductions that exceed $5 a carton and is imposing an $8 export tax.

To address the risk this price cut has of promoting smoking, the government will be launching an awareness campaign against smoking.

"Some of the physicians and surgeons who sit in the House of Commons strongly support this plan for the mere fact that it strongly attacks the health problems associated with smoking," said O'Reilly.

Smuggling is a very serious problem, he said.

Jocko snarls his way into kids' hearts

by Jerry Grozelle

Senior constable Paul MacNeil and Jocko paid a visit to J.D. Hodgson Elementary School in Haliburton and Archie Stouffer Public School in Minden last Thursday.

MacNeil and Jocko are the Ontario Provincial Police District 8 Canine Unit, based in Peterborough.

The duo was introduced by Minden OPP constable Mike Landry, the local community services officer.

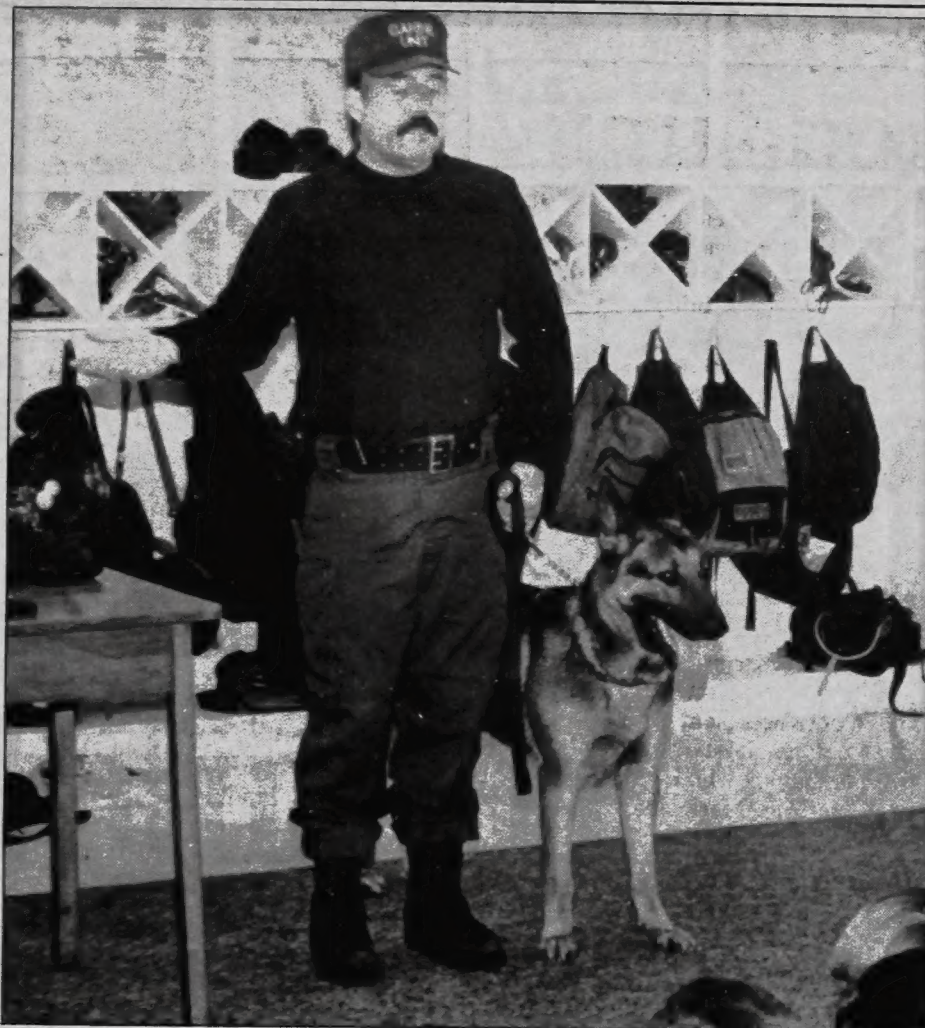

Three Grade 6 classes at Minden learned how a real police dog is trained and watched a demonstration of his drug sniffing ability. Some illicit drugs were stashed in various locations in the classroom where the presentation was made and Jocko showed his keen sense of smell, finding all of the planted drugs.

The drugs used in the demonstration are the same ones that Jocko was trained with.

After explaining the job of the canine unit and telling the youngsters how Jocko is trained, MacNeil gave the children the opportunity to ask questions.

Among the points MacNeil tried to impress upon the students was that Jocko is a working dog and not a house pet. That wasn't always the case though. Jocko was about a year and a half old when he was recruited from a family in the Timmins area to work with the OPP.

The fact that Jocko is not a house pet was amply demonstrated by his disposition in the classroom. He's not the kind of dog you'd walk up to and Const. Paul MacNeil and Jocko showed how a canine unit works. offer a pat on the head.

Even constable Landry kept his distance from the 100-pound German shepherd.

As MacNeil explained, Jocko isn't trained to recognize anyone in uniform as a friend. His only friend is MacNeil himself, although the officer says Jocko gets along with his family. Jocko has to, since he is MacNeil's companion 24 hours a day. When the shift is over, MacNeil takes Jocko home with him.

There is only one canine unit for the entire district, of which, Minden is the most northerly detachment. The unit is on call 24 hours a day to any police force between Minden and Lake Ontario, including town police forces and the RCMP.

"All of the general purpose dogs are German shepherds," MacNeil explained. "We have some Labs (Labrador retrievers) for bomb detection."

As a general purpose dog, Jocko is used for search and rescue as well as narcotic detection.

The three-year-old shepherd has been on the force for about a year and a half. If his health permits, he will be on duty for seven to eight years, at which time he will be retired and MacNeil will have the option of keeping him as a pet.

This was Landry's first experience with the canine unit.

"The presentation was very impressive," Landry said. "I think it's good for the kids. It lets them know that a real police dog isn't like the ones they see on TV".

Archie Stouffer principal Peter Forgrave said the presentation was "really interesting," adding that Jocko is a very versatile dog.

Some of the teachers of the three Grade 6 classes who witnessed the demonstration asked jokingly where they could acquire a dog like Jocko to keep the classes in line.

Slush warning

This year's weather conditions have resulted in a great deal of slush building up on area lakes.

The slush has now frozen causing many fish huts to become lodged in the ice. Huts that are no regularly maintained should be inspected and measures taken to make removal at the end of March easier.

The Ministry of Natural Resources reminds anglers that it is illegal to burn or leave debris from huts on the ice. The ministry also reminds anglers that fish huts must be registered. A number can be obtained, free of charge, by phoning your local ministry office.

Rotary supports many projects

by Gordon Graham

Some of you good people from the community often ask, "Where does the money go that is raised from Rotary Bingo and other Rotary activities?"

Well, the work is done by many hard working Rotarians with very little fanfare.

The money we raise goes back into the community. For example, during the last 6 months of 1993 almost $11,000 was put into very worth-while projects. Here are some of those projects:

- Christmas food/gift boxes for the needy
- Christmas party at Hyland Crest plus children's party
- Santa Claus parade in Minden
- Eye glasses for the needy
- Large print books for the library
- Local literacy programs
- The Eric Nystedt memorial fund
- Transportation for high school dances
- Timbersport
- Emergency response systems for the physically challenged, Home Support Services

In addition you may remember that Minden Rotary has committed itself to a very energetic project in pledging $125,000 for acute care services and $125,000 for long-term care services in the Minden area.

Naturally, we can't do it without you. Thank you for your support and let's all keep up the good work!

Funding promised for Kinmount housing project

Relief and elation are two emotions running high in Kinmount these days in the wake of an announcement that funding has been approved for 40 non-profit housing units in the village.

"I really can't even tell you how good I feel," said Flo Jopling, Chairperson of the Kinmount Non-Profit Housing Corporation.

Funding is to be provided through the NDP's jobsOntario Homes Program. The announcement was made Friday afternoon during a press conference at Peterborough MPP Jenny Carter's office.

"The need for affordable housing has continued to grow, especially during this recession," Carter said. "Today's announcement means decent, affordable homes for individuals, families, seniors and people with special needs. Affordable housing is a long term investment in our communities."

Kinmount's share of the affordable housing units to be built in the Victoria-Haliburton area is more than half. Kairos Non-Profit Housing of Peterborough will get 20 units and the Victoria County Women's Resource Services will get 18.

"Non-profit housing is generating thousands of much-needed jobs in the construction industry," Carter said. "The construction of these (78) homes alone will support up to 140 person-years of employment."

The corporation has had a few sites in mind for the project but now that the funding has been made available, plans will get under way in earnest.

"The work is just beginning," Jopling says.

HALIBURTON SEWER

Good news for the area continues to roll in. Friday's announcement was hot on the heels of another jobsOntario communique stating that more than $4.3-million has been granted to Dysart Et Al and the Village of Haliburton for the construction of a Haliburton-Kashagawigamog sewer extension.

Eimer Buchanan, MPP for Hastings-Peterborough (who made the announcement), said that "the Dysart-Haliburton project is going to help the area build up its tourist base."

The sewer extension project is expected to create about 100 jobs.

Coby OPP Notes

Two sleds stolen

Two snowmobiles were stolen from the parking lot of the Head Lake Tavern, RR 3, Kirkfield, between 9:30 p.m. and midnight on January 30.

The two machines are identified as a 1988 Polaris Indy, grey, with Ontario registration number 587987 and a 1993 Polaris Indy, green, with Ontario registration number 718616.

The 1988 machine has since been recovered. It was found abandoned on the shoulder of Highway 503 about 2.4 kilometres west of the Head Lake Tavern.

The '93 appears, by tracks found at the site of the abandoned sled, to have been loaded onto a vehicle which left the scene westbound on Highway 503.

Snowmobiles continue to be a popular target for thieves. Some time overnight of January 30/31, a 1994 Ski-Doo Safari D/L and trailer were stolen from Highway 35 at Coboconk. The trailer was later recovered on the Laxton-Bexley Boundary, between Coboconk and Norland. The registration number of the sled is 741683. It is owned by Joyce Walker of Coboconk.

DOGS AND DEER

OPP officials are cautioning dog owners to keep their pets under control.

With the crust of ice on the snow from the recent storm, deer are particularly vulnerable to attacks from predators (pet dogs included). This fact was demonstrated recently when two dogs chased a deer through the business section of Fenelon Falls.

On January 31, the deer was chased through town. One of the dogs was caught near the store and at that time the other dog gave up the chase.

Restore balance, Harris repeats sage was the same: It's time to restore the prosperity that once made Ontario the envy of other provinces.

"I think we need a new direction," Hodgson said to more than 400 people who greeted him throughout the day. "We need a system that rewards hard work."

"The government has not been spending your money as well as you do," Harris concurred. "We have too much government, taxes are too high, too many regulations and too much red tape." He said it's time to restore the balance between public and private sectors by reducing the size of government.

Harris says he's known around Queen's Park as Attila The Un. "I'll unlegislate, unregulate, unhire and untax," he said.

This doesn't mean cuts to services, he said. Instead, it means better management of government revenues.

"We delivered better services with fewer dollars 10 years ago. We're not cutting services, we're rationalizing services."

The Liberal and NDP governments of the past 10 years have tried to fix the economy by spending more, he said. "If government spending created jobs, we'd be moving. We're the biggest spenders in Canada."

He said the spending strategy hasn't worked. Despite the money that's been spent on make-work projects, the economy has continued to plummet.

During the recession in 1982, Harris said Conservative Premier Frank Miller decided to cut taxes, which worked to stimulate the economy by encouraging people to buy. He said the NDP is now taking the opposite route. "The NDP hikes taxes and says, 'We'll help out.'"

Among the concerns raised during the day were welfare costs,

Conservative candidate Chris Hodgson took the opportunity Thursday to discuss the issues with hundreds of supporters in Victoria and Haliburton Counties.

Workers Compensation Board fees, and Junior Kindergarten. The following are the leader's comments on these issues:

WELFARE

While he admits there is a need for this social safety net, Harris said the Liberals and NDP have turned the net into a hammock. Those who are willing to make an effort to return to the workforce deserve the help he said. "If people choose education or relocation, we'll help them," He said. "If they choose to stay at home and do nothing, they'll get nothing."

"We want those who want to stay home and do nothing to think this isn't a good province to do that in."

COMPENSATION

The rising costs of Workers Compensation fees was an issue of particular importance to member of the Haliburton County Homebuilders Association, who gathered at the PineStone Inn in the afternoon.

Harris said the WCB has to be run more like a business. It has to rationalize its costs and its rate hikes. He also said businesses with clean accident records should be rewarded with reduced rates. He said he admires the tack taken by New Brunswick Premier Frank McKenna. He said McKenna sat labour and business representatives down and asked them for a sensible solution.

JUNIOR KINDERGARTEN

When asked about the mandatory implementation of Junior Kindergarten, Harris pulled no punches. Because the program is unworkable in many parts of the province, he the ultimate decision should be left in the hands of the school boards.

When he was chairman of the Nipissing Board of Education, Harris said he was regularly called on to implement Junior Kindergarten. The only rationale behind this prodding was that the program was offered in the separate schools and people were afraid the public schools might lose students. Harris said he was opposed to the program then, and he is opposed to it today. "We're opposed," he told Haliburton school board trustee Wayne Woods at the meeting in Wilberforce. "We're encouraging people to break the law and not do it."

The present government is insisting that board begin phasing in Junior Kindergarten this September. When Harris was asked why this can't be a local option, he said there's only one reason: "You've got the wrong government in there."

"Part of being a good government is respecting individual choice," said Harris.

Laxton hopes to capitalize on grants

by Jerry Grozelle

A total of $76,610 in federal and provincial funding is available to the United Townships of Laxton, Digby and Longford through the Infrastructure program. Add the municipality's share ($38,305), which it will have to kick in to get the government funds, and it boosts the amount available to $114,914.

Council will draft a wish list of projects that the money may be used for. A new roof on the old part of the municipal office is expected to be high on the list.

Other possibilities will be windows for the new library facility, located behind the municipal office.

LIBRARY PROCESSING

Renovations to the new library are progressing well.

A ramp and automatic door opener are in place and the lighting system will soon be completed.

Once the carpet is down and the shelving installed, the facility will be ready for the move from the old location on Highway 35.

No official date for the official opening has been set but it is expected to be in the spring.

"It is really nice," said councillor Lynn Peel, who is also a member of the Library Committee. "I'm really happy with it. It's going to be an interesting library."

Over the past several months, the Library Committee has raised $3,412.27 for the new facility, through book sales, raffles and soliciting donations from individuals and Norland and Coboconk area service clubs.

The Library got an unexpected bonus recently in the form of a $3,000 donation from the municipality.

MEETING TIMES

Starting in March, the Laxton, Digby and Longford council meetings will change to 9:00 a.m. from 6:00 p.m. Meetings will remain the first Tuesday of each month and the third Tuesday of alternate months, starting with January.

ROADS BUDGET

The roads budget for 1994 has been set at $231,450. That represents a decrease of $5,350 from last year.

Some areas where the budget was trimmed include brushing, which was mostly completed last year and grass cutting.

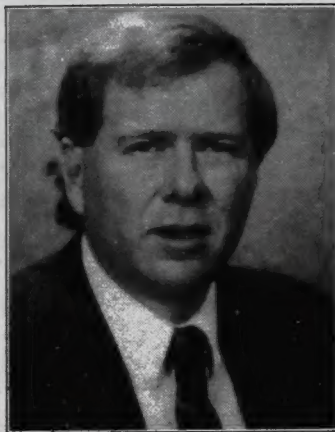

Signage will be enhanced in the municipality for safety and liability reasons.

Two of the major road projects scheduled for 1994 include part of concession 4 of Laxton, concession 6 of Laxton, north of the Bexley Boundary and the Hilton Point Road.

A new six-ton truck to replace the existing sander is on the wish list (but not in the budget at this time).

Any decision to purchase a truck will hinge on the availability of an MTO grant.

A wise investment

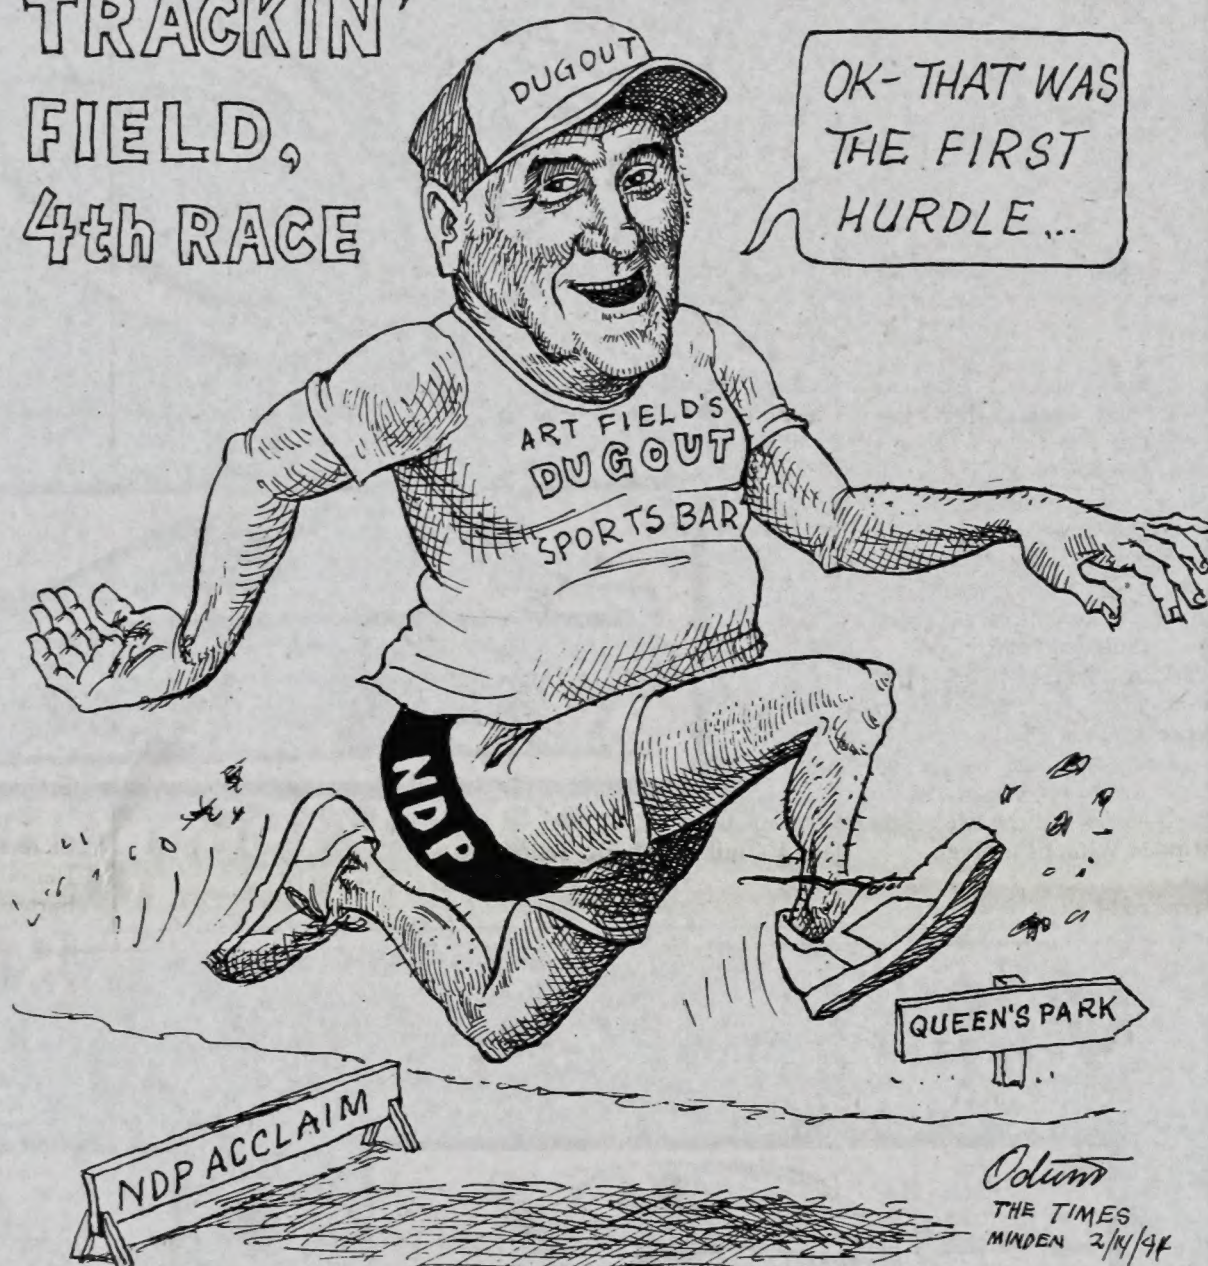

Bob Rae and the provincial New Democrats will come under fire for many things during the course of this by-election, but the JobsOntario program is one program that will have few critics.

In keeping with the socialistic theme of the government, this program throws money at the immense unemployment problem and creates thousands of temporary jobs. However, what distinguishes this program from other spending programs is what will be accomplished once the money runs out.

By linking JobsOntario with the Canada Ontario Infrastructure Works Program, municipalities are able to accomplish projects that would otherwise be impossible. Things like the long-awaited sewer expansion for Haliburton, the non-profit housing project for Kinmount and road improvement projects in Lutterworth are examples of projects that are possible because of this program. The work on the development and enhancement of such infrastructures may be temporary, but the product of the work will allow communities to offer services and accommodate growth.

The money for this program will not help the deficit situation, but for once we can say the government is making a wise investment in this province's future.

Minden Council permits holiday shopping

from Minden Council

Congratulations to the Minden Sled Dog Derby for an exhilarating weekend! The extraordinary success of the event is due to the dedicated committee members and volunteers who worked long hours to put on a first-class event. The whole community benefits economically and psychologically, and council wishes to extend its appreciation to all those who helped make it happen.

By-law for businesses: The Provincial Government passed the Retail Business Holidays Act, which prevents businesses from opening on statutory holidays. The act also permits local municipalities to pass by-laws, at their expense, to provide exemptions to certain businesses from the statutory holidays closing provisions of the act. In response to requests from the Minden Business Improvement Area (BIA) and other businesses in the municipality, council recently passed by-laws to enable certain retail business establishments to remain open on Victoria Day, Good Friday, Canada Day, Labour Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Boxing Day. The cost of processing, advertising and conducting a public meeting came to approximately $1,000, and these costs have been absorbed by Anson, Hindon and Minden townships, in recognition of the importance of tourism to this area, and the sincere belief that our businesses recognize the advantages of expanded hours to meet the needs of visitors.

Jobs for Minden: The Canada-Ontario Infrastructure Program, designed to renew and improve infrastructure projects while creating jobs, has allocated up to $963,949 to Anson Hindon and Minden townships. The municipality's share could total $321,316 with the Provincial-Federal contribution at $642,633. 85 per cent of the funds must be spent before March 31, 1996 and projects completed before March 31, 1997. Proposals must be in to the government by September 30, 1994, but must have 35 per cent of the total allocation spent by March 1995. Your council intends to take advantage of this potential influx of new dollars into our economy and is deliberating and setting priorities on how best to utilize these funds for the betterment of this community.

Well rehabilitation: The work you see being done on the Bobcaygeon Road well site is to meet the government's final requirements for our Certificate of Approval - the rehabilitation of the old well to produce a minimum of 300 gallons per minute. With favourable weather, the work should be completed this spring. We are happy to inform you that except for landscaping, construction of the new well is completed at approximately $13,000 below the tendered price. It is supplying excellent water, and the landscaping and sodding will be completed this spring.

Winter Carnival: The 1994 Minden Winter Carnival has come and gone, and despite the weather, the event was well attended and enjoyed by all. Council took the leading role to ensure that this community was able to keep their Winter Carnival. Thanks to the contributions made and the hard work of many volunteers, the Carnival has had new life put into it. We are now turning to the community to take over and continue with this event. Citizens interested in assuming a leadership role in the Carnival, please contact the Municipal Office.

'Wini' honours carnival founder

Editor,

I feel highly honoured by the decision of judges and their reasoning in naming the Minden Winter Carnival mascot Wini.

I could scarcely believe what I was reading when I saw a copy of The Times.

I appreciate this recognition and also the kind thoughts of Elaine Yeo and James Kirk in their submission.

Success of the carnival since its inception has been the result of many people working together in the community and the event is very close to my heart.

I am a proud and happy Highlander and extend sincere good wishes for the life of the Minden Winter Carnival.

Tired of being left standing in the cold

Editor,

It's February 10 and the temperature is 35 degrees below zero. The bus picks up my step son, who tells the driver his sister will be a minute late. The driver pulls over to the side of the road and waits for about 40 seconds. When my daughter doesn't come out, he drives away. There she is standing halfway between the house and bus and away it goes.

Has this ever happened to you? Frustrating isn't it? This was the second time it happened to us this year.

When I called the bus line to complain about this problem, I was told it was my fault for not making sure she was out waiting for the bus at least five minutes before it normally arrives. So, it was okay that the driver left without my daughter.

I finished high school only five years ago and the bus drivers I had then would always stop and wait if a kid wasn't out waiting for the bus and would certainly never leave without one that he knew was coming.

Apparently, this is a common complaint with the bus line. If this is true, maybe it should change its policy.

After talking with the driver, the owner phoned me back and said the driver did more than enough to ensure my daughter got on the bus.

My question to the driver of the bus is, why did you pull over at all if you weren't going to wait for her?

I guess the new job description for drivers is to pick the kids up who are waiting in the cold on the side of the road and leave the ones that aren't quite ready. I thought that bus drivers were supposed to take all the kids to school.

The Haliburton Highlands Literacy Program would like to publicly acknowledge the kind generosity of Dr. Harry Good for his support of the literacy training in Haliburton County. The use of space in his building for a Literacy Centre for Haliburton County and to provide larger office space for our program will provide a wonderful opportunity for the Haliburton Highlands Literacy Program to expand and continue its work in a more vital and interesting way. This will enable us to better fulfil the needs of people in our community.

At this time we would also like to thank Jane Selbie of the Employment Centre for the office space she has provided there for the last three years. Her continued interest in Haliburton Highlands Literacy Program and the people of Haliburton County is truly commendable.

With the continued support of our tutors and other interested local people and groups our program will be able to continue to serve the literacy needs of this county in the coming years.

To all our friends a hearty "thank you."

Newfoundland: Canada's love nest

Canada's thirteenth prime minister John George Diefenbaker, probably had the healthiest attitude towards public opinion polls. Back in the early 60's a reporter asked the Chief what he thought of a newspaper poll that showed his popularity was on the wane.

Diefenbaker, eyes blazing, looked down at the reporter and thundered "Poles? Poles? You know what dogs do to poles!"

And fair comment too. The trouble with polls is that they are mostly wrong, irrelevant — or they tell you things that anyone with the I.Q. of a cauliflower already knows.

Take this recent magazine poll. "Newfoundlanders are Canada's busiest lovers," it shrieks.

Yeah...so?

Is this supposed to be a surprise? The pollsters thought perhaps that retirees in Victoria or brokers on Bay Street could seriously challenge residents of the Rock when it comes to amour?

But I thought everybody knew that Newfoundland was the Love Nest of the Canadian psyche. I mean look at the place names!

Take a short drive up the east coast of Trinity Bay and before you can say I'se the Bye you'll find yourself passing through a trio of hamlets called Heart's Delight, Heart's Desire and Heart's Content.

Toronto has the Frederick G. Gardiner Expressway. Newfoundland has Tickle Cove.

British Columbia has Richmond and Comox and Surrey.

Newfoundland has Bareneed and Ha Ha Bay and Nancy Oh.

And that's without even getting into the lascivious Newfoundland names — names like Cupids and Spoon Cove. Leading Ticks and Conception Bay. Comfort Cove. Breakheart Point. Happy Valley-Goose Bay.

Not to mention Dildo, Dildo Arm, Dildo Cove,

Some say it's the seafood diet that boosts their stamina

Black'n White
by Arthur Black

Dildo Islands, Dildo Pond, Dildo Run and South Dildo.

And of course Come By Chance.

Pretty hard to be a puritan when you're living in a suggestive landscape like that.

Some Newfoundlanders claim it's the seafood diet that gives them their sexual stamina. Others say it's a combination of isolation and even tougher than usual economic times that account for the popularity of mankind's oldest indoor sport.

I think it might be something else.

Anyone who's ever visited Newfoundland cannot fail to notice that the residents there still cling to something that the rest of us seem to have misplaced.

I don't know what to call it. It seems to be made up of generous dollops of innocence, genuine friendliness, innate kindness and an unsinkable urge to enjoy life.

Which they do, in spite of a grim climate, an unforgiving ocean, a moribund economy — and the stupid Newfie Jokes the (secretly envious) rest of Canada tells about them.

You want a Newfie Joke? I'll tell you one. I heard it in a bar on Duckworth Street one night when a raucous table of "Come From Aways" was filling the smoky air with Newfie jokes.

It went on for a while until finally the waiter, a brawny Bayman, came over to the table, put down his tray and leaned on our table on his two hairy fists.

It looked like trouble. Until he opened his mouth.

"There was a Toronto feller came here to live in St. John's t'ree years ago" he told us. "After a couple of months he noticed a strange t'ing while he was shavin' one morning. He had this brown ring runnin' right across his forehead. Wellsir, he rushed right down to the Emergency Ward of the hospital. The doctor examined the ring on his forehead. Didn't say a word. The feller wit' the ring said "What is it doctor? Is it serious?" The doctor looked at him and said "You're from Toronto are ye?"

"That's right!" said the feller wit' the ring. "But how could you know that? And what is this brown ring anyway?"

"'Tis nothing to worry about" said the Doctor. "You're merely full of shit and down a quart."

And then the waiter brought us a round of beer.

Westside, Home and Hartwick all winners in Men's hockey action

by Jerry Grozelle

WESTSIDE 4, STAMP 1

Westside Jug City pulled even with Sid Stamp Fuels in fourth place with a 4-1 win over the Stamp crew in Minden Men's Recreational Hockey League play on February 7.

Alec Little opened the scoring for the Stamp team on a set-up from Charlie Teljeur.

Before the first period was over, Dave Pettes notched the equalizer for Westside. Eldon Bull and Tom Haley assisted.

The second half belonged to Westside as three unanswered goals put the game away.

Bull scored what proved to be the game winner, from Mike Keaney. Steve Crowe and Gord Nelson added insurance with one marker each. Pettes and Nelson assisted on Crowe's goal and Dave Rogers drew an assist on the Nelson goal.

HOME 6, TIMES 2

The night's second game saw The Times run out of gas, squandering a 2-0 lead (for the second week in a row) to suffer a 6-2 loss at the hands of the league leading Home Hardware team.

Lawrence Lougheed got The Times on the scoreboard first, converting a pass from Doug Schell. Jim Crawford made it 2-0 on a set-up from Clarke Craig and Lougheed.

Brian Shaw started the Home assault with an unassisted goal before the first period ended.

Trini Elias notched the tying goal, from Richie Mills early in the second half.

Doug Allison and Shaw combined to set Dave Dollo up for the go-ahead marker. Mills, Boomer Stamp and Allison added one each to the Home tally to round out the scoring. Dollo and Shaw picked up two assists apiece on the last three goals while Elias and Kevin Fairey helped set up one each.

HARTWICK 11, KDD 3

A total of 14 goals were scored in the night's third game and when the ice crystals settled, Hartwick Construction had an 11-3 victory over Kountry Double D Caterers.

Hartwick took a 5-0 first-period lead and never looked back.

Scott Nesbitt scored twice in the opening frame with singles going to Scott Hamilton, Chad Connelly and Bern Berry.

KDD got on the board in the second half with a goal by Jason Stamp. Jeff Howe assisted.

Nesbitt replied for Hartwick with his second of the game but KDD got that one back when Howe scored on a set-up from Stamp.

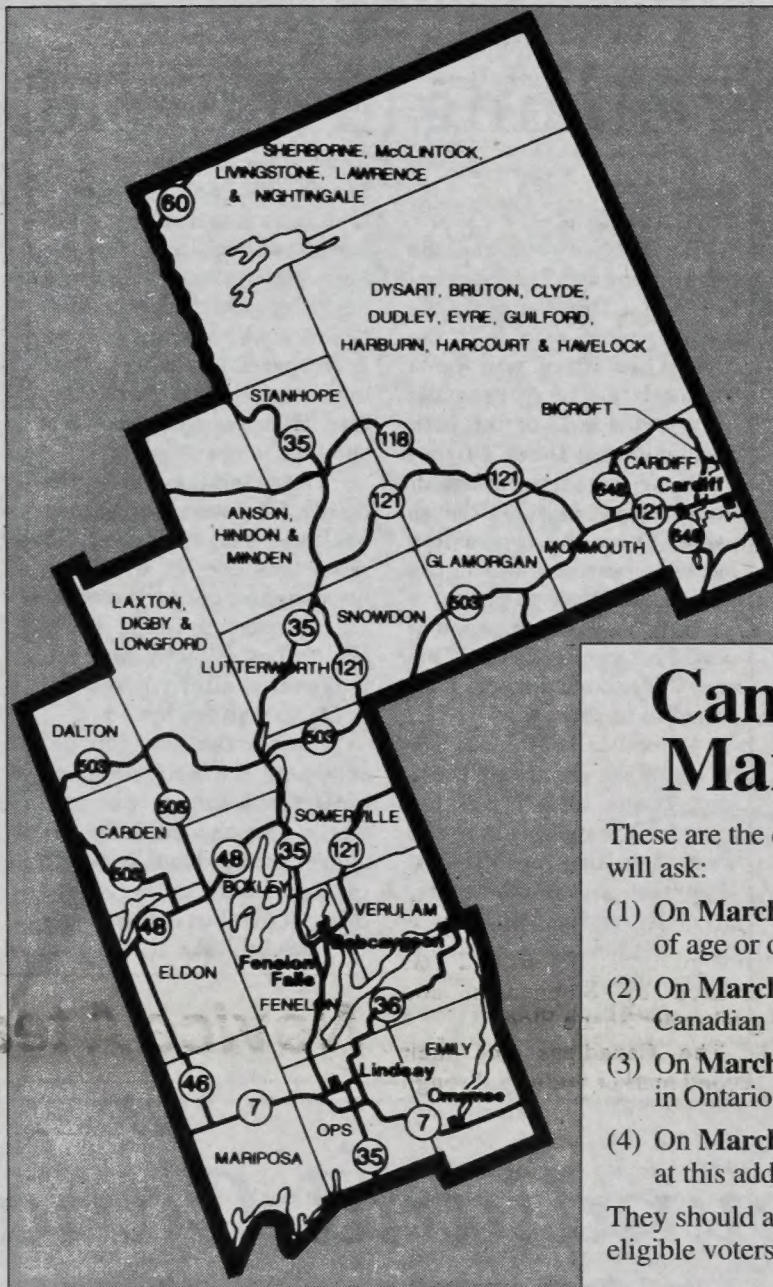

This time, the Hartwick crew responded with three in a row for a 7-2 advantage. Hamilton, Nesbitt and Connelly were the snipers.

Steve Stewart scored the third KDD goal, from Scott Danilko and Jeff Campbell.

Hartwick sharpshooters Nesbitt (with his fifth of the game) and Hamilton (with his third) rounded out the game's scoring.

Hamilton led Hartwick in assists with six for the game. Nesbitt added four helpers while Connelly and John Ballentyne had three apiece. Ron May and Kim Colliss helped the cause with two assists each and Andrew Burke picked up one helper.

League-leading Monarchs shine in playoff action

by Jerry Grozelle

It has been a successful season for the Minden Monarchs bantam B hockey team.

Finishing on top of the seven-team Tri-County League, the Minden boys are continuing on their winning ways in the playoffs. The Monarchs have won their first two games in the six-game round robin series.

Those first two playoff games were against the Keswick Canadiens.

Game one was in Minden on January 22, with the Monarchs blanking Keswick 3-0.

Shane Flood recorded the shutout between the Minden pipes.

Sean Irvine scored the winning goal with 1:46 left in the first period, from Jason Kasepчук and Ian Clemments.

Andy Madill and Matthew Hamilton added an unassisted marker each for insurance.

Keswick hosted the second game of the home and home series.

After one period of play, the Canadiens were ahead 1-0.

Minden took control in the second frame, scoring five unanswered goals on the way to an 8-2 victory.

Jason Kasepчук led the attack with three goals, one of which was assisted by Paul Murray. Sean Irvine and Ian Clemments notched a goal apiece.

The assault continued into the third period with Minden adding two more, both by George Godfrey. Jamie Henderson and Nathan Stephenson set up Godfrey's first goal and the second was assisted by Stephenson and goaltender Shane Flood.

The Canadiens got their second marker midway through the third but a couple of minutes later Kasepчук rounded out the game's scoring with his fourth of the night, unassisted.

The bantam B boys are scheduled to play Mariposa in Oakwood tonight and they will play host to Wilberforce back here tomorrow (Tuesday) at 8 p.m.

Novice A team improved immensely

by Jerry Grozelle

When it comes to improvement over the season, Joe Mitchell, coach of the Minden Monarchs novice A squad, thinks his team is right up there with the best of them.

"The kids worked really hard and improved immensely over the season," Mitchell said.

Among their accomplishments were three tournament wins during the 1993-94 season.

They ended the regular season on a positive note, with a tie and a win on the last weekend of January.

On the 29th, the Monarchs duelled to a 2-2 draw against Beaverton. It was a fast paced game, with no scoring until the third period.

Beaverton held a 2-0 lead midway through the third frame. But the Monarchs made an impressive come-back.

MacMillan Memorial Masters Mini-Putt

by Jerry Grozelle

Golf... in Kinmount... in February?

The Kinmount Arena was alive with golf action for a few hours on Saturday, February 5. The occasion was the MacMillan Memorial Masters Mini-Putt.

The event was originally started by the late Don MacMillan and was held on Crystal Lake near his cottage.

This year, for the first time, the event was held inside at the Kinmount Arena, with 18 two-person teams vying for the Don MacMillan Memorial Trophy.

Organized this year by Tim and Sabine Henderson, the event featured an obstacle course mini-golf type putting course, with an accuracy dart throwing segment tossed in for a twist.

The names were put into a hat and drawn randomly to assure that there were no "ringer" teams.

The action was so fast that everyone went through the course twice.

When the scores were tallied, the top team for 1994 was Sabine Henderson and Vic Keenan with a total score of 124.

Tim Henderson and Sheri Chick finished second with 134.

Cathy King and Vic Ballik came in third with 145.

The "most honest" golfers of the day were Joe Kelly and Doris McNamara.

Howard MacMillan, son of the late Don MacMillan, was on hand to present the trophy to the winners.

Many parents and teachers are worried about the amount of violence they see in the behaviour of children at home, at school and elsewhere. There are probably many reasons for this behaviour but experts believe that one of the major causes is television.

Young children are often not able to separate reality from fiction on TV, and what may be worse, they get some of their behaviour models from TV as well. When you watch children at play you can recognize mannerisms, styles, and even actual imitation of phrases, lines and actions. Those actions may include hitting, kicking, knifing, and shooting as well as verbal abuse and that's why parents and teachers are concerned.

There is research evidence that frequent viewers of TV violence are more likely to say that it's fine to hit people when you're upset with them. Children may react violently in stressful situations and then express surprise when adults tell them that it is not right to treat people that way. "They do that on TV, don't they?" you hear them ask.

YOUR YOUNGSTER'S TELEVISION

1. Try to watch TV with your children, at least enough to know what they are watching and what they like most.
2. Talk with your children about what is real and is not real on TV.
3. Help your children to notice how people treat each other on TV, and whether that is how they would like to be treated.
4. Talk with your youngsters about the kinds of physical violence they see on TV. They could have fun learning how actors simulate violence. Ask them to watch for "pretend" violence when they watch their favourite TV shows, and to try to figure out how it is done.

Ops atoms have the edge over Minden in playoffs

Monarchs face elimination with a loss or tie

by Jerry Grozelle

The Ops atoms are proving to be tough competition for the Minden Monarchs in the OMHA playoffs.

The Minden boys must win their next game to stave off elimination in the best of three atom E series.

Game one (on February 7) was a goaltender's duel at the Ops Community Centre, ending in a scoreless draw.

Mitch Johnson earned the shutout in the Minden net while his counterpart, Chris Lynch was unbeatable at the other end of the rink.

When the two teams tangled the next night in Minden, the Monarchs wound up on the short end of a 6-4 score.

The game was close throughout, with Ops scoring two late goals to get by the Monarchs.

Gaten Davis opened the scoring for the Monarchs with an unassisted effort.

Josh Shaw made it 2-0 for the home side midway through the first, before Ops got on the scoreboard.

Novice A

Beaverton lead in half with an unassisted goal and Andy Kinsman notched the equalizer on a set-up from Mitchell.

The last game of the regular season saw the Monarchs defeat Mariposa 3-1 in Little Britain.

Minden jumped to a 2-0 lead in the first period. Evan Kernohan and Jamie Colliss were the marksmen, with Mitchell helping to set up both goals. Kernohan and Colliss picked up an assist on each other's markers.

Minden and Mariposa exchanged goals in the third. Jordan Campbell notched the third Minden marker, from Kinsman.

The novice team is finished in OMHA play for the season after losing two games to Bobcaygeon in the first round of playoffs.

The Monarchs won't be hanging the skates up just yet though. They are scheduled to compete in a consolation round robin series starting on February 22.

The schedule and opponents for that round robin have yet to be set.

With just under three minutes left in the period, Shawn Schryer cut Minden's lead in half.

It took Minden just 17 seconds to get that one back, when Dan Nielsen scored to make it 3-1. Davis and Mark Mattsson assisted.

Before the period was over, Ops struck again. Andrew Stewart was the sniper.

The middle frame was scoreless until the final minute when Timmy James got the equalizer for Ops.

The visitors took the lead for the first time at the 3:57 mark of the third with a goal by Drew Strongitharm.

A minute and a half later Minden was back on even terms when Mattsson capitalized on an opportunity during a scramble in front of the Ops net. Shaw drew an assist on that one.

Less than a minute after that,

Strongitharm put Ops in front again. Then, with just over five minutes left, Adam Silver scored for the 6-4 Ops lead.

The Minden boys pulled out all the stops, but Ops held them at bay to preserve the win.

Game three of the series was played at Ops Sunday evening. If Minden won that game, a deciding game will take place tomorrow (Tuesday) at 7:00 p.m. in Minden.

Big winner: Michael Hamilton, 12, of Minden was the winner of a trip for four to Toronto to see the Toronto Maple Leafs take on the Edmonton Oilers at Maple Leaf Gardens on February 19. Michael receives four gold tickets, $200 cash and one night's accommodation in Toronto from Sandy Cole, a fundraiser for Minden Minor Hockey. The draw took place at the IDA drug store in Minden on Saturday, February 5. A customer at the store, Bonnie Pentney, was recruited to draw the winning ticket. Minor Hockey President Bill Stackhouse and fundraiser Kathy Anderson were on hand for the draw. More than $1,700 was raised for Minden Minor Hockey through the draw.

Haliburton's fate rests in hands of Fenelon Falcons

by Jerry Grozelle

The Haliburton Redmen finished the Kawartha High School Hockey League regular season in style, winning their last two games.

Greg Stamp paced the attack against Adam Scott Tuesday with two goals and three assists.

Jackie Morrison notched a pair of goals and two assists in the 8-1 victory.

Mark Stamp added a goal and assisted on three others. Dennis Woods had a goal and an assist while single markers went to Andy Billings and Jonathon Bishop. Mike Billings set up one goal.

The Redmen played their last game of the regular season on home ice against Lindsay's I.E. Weldon Wildcats on Wednesday.

The Wildcats kept it closer but Haliburton skated to a 6-4 win to finish the season with a record of 11 wins, five losses and one tie.

Mark Stamp and Mike Billings scored two each for the Redmen with singles going to Chris Greenfield and Mike MacKenzie.

Colin Morrison chipped in with two assists and single helpers went to Jackie Morrison, Greg Stamp, Greenfield, Mike Billings, Bishop and Andrew McKelvey.

As of Friday, Haliburton was the only team to complete all 17 games. At that time the Redmen held second place overall in the 12-team league with 23 points and first in the Kawartha West division, one point in front of the Fenelon Falls Falcons.

For Haliburton to remain in first in the West division and second overall, the Falcons would have to lose all of their remaining three games. Thomas A. Stewart Secondary is also within striking distance with 20 points and three games in hand.

Four Redmen are among the top 20 scorers in the league. Jonathon Bishop is fifth with 11 goals and 17 assists for 28 points, 11 behind league leader Mark McFadden of Crestwood.

Mark Stamp is in ninth spot with 25 points from 12 goals and 13 assists.

Greg Stamp and Mike MacKenzie are tied with 22 points each. Stamp has 11 goals and 11 assists while MacKenzie has 10 goals and 12 assists.

The Kawartha West playoffs will get under way on February 21.

Earning a place on tourism map

Welcome to the maiden voyage of the once-a-month or thereabouts Chamber of Commerce column. There's an awful lot on the Chamber drawing board right now and we're working from the ground up with a completely revamped state of mind. We're focused, aggressive and dedicated to making the necessary changes to secure this county its rightful place on the tourism map. A new era is dawning in Haliburton, and this column is one of the ways we're going to let you know all the great things we're doing for this county. The new Board of Directors is a no-nonsense bunch; a vibrant blend of personalities brimming with talent, fresh ideas and an incredible ability to make good decisions.

Our main focus now is the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce Strategic Plan. Don't let the title scare you; it may be a challenge to get your mouth around, but it's a lot simpler than it sounds.

This recently-adopted plan is big news and is guaranteed to change the face of this county. The unanimous vote that set it in motion last month is one of historical significance; the chamber has never taken such deliberate and binding steps toward making sure the best, progressive decisions are made to reflect what's best for the people of this area. And if you wonder why we're so sure we can make these decisions, just take a look at the backgrounds of those involved.

Even non-members will notice a wide array of positive changes within the chamber. Some of these include increased communications and media coverage; a virtual metamorphosis in marketing initiatives; attention to a broader range of business issues; in-county networking

The Chamber of Commerce is focusing its attention on the completion of its Strategic Plan

Chamber

by Carol Moffatt

and unification; and increased financial efficiency.

There are five goals within the strategic plan, each of which has its own set of objectives and activities to be pursued. The goals are:

To market and promote the county as a uniquely superior place to live; a profitable place to own/operate a business; a fulfilling place to work; and affordable and enjoyable place to purchase goods and services; and a four-season tourist destination.

To strive toward a membership level of 100 per cent of eligible businesses.

To encourage and promote a positive and professional business environment.

To continually investigate opportunities that will improve the overall financial effectiveness of the chamber and its membership.

To initiate and/or support the interaction of the business community, townships and county government, and other related groups in order to work together to improve and unify the local economy.

Committees to direct each particular goal are being set up as we speak and each committee will be chaired by a board member. Anyone seriously interested in helping to pursue the future excellence of this county is invited to pick up a copy of the strategic plan at the chamber office. You really need to peruse the whole document to get a feel for just what's going to happen. There will be sign-up sheets for each committee at the next Business to Business reception at Wigamog Inn on February 22, so have your pen ready and your ideas flowing. The Board of Directors meets on the third Wednesday of each month at different locations and all members and interested parties are welcome. Call the office for locations and times each month.

We've got our act together, so come on out and help us take it on the road. And keep your eye on this space.

Coming Events...

Board of Directors' meeting on March 16.

The chamber's budget presentation to county council on February 16.

The second Business to Business reception on February 22 at Wigamog Inn. This is co-sponsored by County Commercial Printers. This is a great opportunity to meet, greet and network with other business owners in the county in a friendly, informal atmosphere. The guest speaker will be County Warden Jim McMahon.

Minden OPP Notes

Dealer foils sled theft

YOUTH CHARGED

A sharp-eyed snowmobile dealership owner helped police recover a stolen sled recently.

A 1994 Yamaha snowmobile valued at $8,800 was reported stolen by owner Murray Hunter of Gooderham. It was stolen from behind the Rail's End Gallery in Haliburton where Hunter had parked it while he and a friend went for lunch. The key had been left in the machine and the two helmets were beside it.

Police say that at about 5:00 p.m. the same day, Brent Devolin, owner of a local Polaris dealership, spotted two local youths on the stolen machine. Devolin stopped them and told the youths he was aware of the fact that the machine was stolen and took them to his shop where he called the Minden OPP.

As a result, one of the two youths was charged in connection with the theft.

SLEDS RECOVERED

Four males, three of them young offenders, have been charged with the theft of nine snowmobiles in the Salerno Lake area.

Along with the theft charges, the four also face break and enter and possession charges.

Minden OPP have recovered six of the stolen sleds.

EASTON'S HIT AGAIN

Easton's Value Mart has been the victim another break, enter and theft.

Some time in the early morning hours of January 31, someone smashed through the front doors of the Haliburton store and made off with 80 cartons of cigarettes and five cigarette making kits. Value of the stolen merchandise is valued at $3,200.

ASSAULT

OPP officials say that an argument over money erupted into an assault causing bodily harm when one of two males living at a Glamour Lake cottage took a baseball bat to the other.

The victim of the assault, Norman Whitten, 39, was able to get to a neighbour's phone to call police. He was later treated at the hospital in Haliburton and released.

Donald Fellows, 42, was arrested and charged with assault causing bodily harm.

BREAK-INS

Minden OPP are investigating break-ins at the Minden offices of Ontario Hydro and the Ministry of Natural Resources.

Some time between 8:00 p.m. on February 9 and 7:30 a.m. on February 10, the front door of the Hydro office was pried open. Once entry was gained, the culprit(s) managed to pry the safe open and made off with $900 in cash.

The same night, the MNR office was entered through a side window. The safe there was also pried open and $500 was taken.

Stanhope OP put on hold

Stanhope's official plan may be on hold for another year or more.

Discussions at last week's council meeting seemed to favour deferring the process of developing an official plan for at least nine months.

Most council members voiced the concern that an official plan couldn't be produced and adopted before the municipal elections slated for November of this year.

Councillor Murray Daniels said he thought it wouldn't be fair to start something that would have to be passed along to the next council.

"The next council may have totally different ideas," deputy-reeve Eleanor Harrison commented. "It may not be fair to start something we can't complete."

Council decided to invite the consultants working on the plan (Totten, Simms, Hubicki) to its March meeting to review the terms of reference and the time frame in which the plan could be completed.

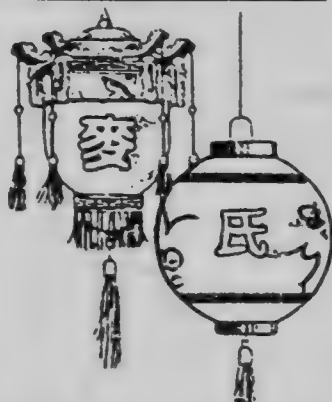

The consultants have indicated that a realistic completion date would be March or April of 1995.

Dog owners are asked for co-operation

The Ministry of Natural Resources is asking for the co-operation of dog owners in protecting deer herds by not allowing their pets to roam unattended.

Dogs harassing deer, especially during this time of the year when deer movement is limited and fat reserves are low, can cause undue stress. Domestic dogs left to roam free will often travel in groups and participate in the thrill of a deer chase. This often results in the death of the deer through exhaustion or injury.

Although winter was late in coming to the Haliburton Highlands, January proved to be an extremely cold month with an average temperature of about -17C.

Lasting snow didn't arrive here until almost Christmas, and this allowed the deer herds to move freely. However, the cold weather and snow in January changed all that, and a recent fall of freezing rain has left a crust that is causing some concern for the local deer herds.

Natural food for deer in winter consists of twigs of deciduous trees and shrubs, and boughs of cedar and hemlock. Deer must be able to move freely between shelter and food supply areas in order to survive the winter. Surface crusts that formed after the freezing rain are not strong enough to support the deer. This has made movement very difficult and has also increased deer vulnerability to harassment by dogs and predators.

The ministry monitors winter severity by taking weekly readings of snow depth, crust conditions and temperature chill. In an effort to reduce winter stress on deer, snowmobile trails are broken throughout the years for the deer to travel on.

Only in extreme situations would emergency feeding be initiated. Feeding is only carried out after carefully considering a number of factors such as winter conditions to date, how long deer have been in the yards, how much longer the winter is expected to last, how severe the previous winter was, and the abundance of natural foods in the yard.

Landowners considering feeding should contact the ministry before doing so to obtain information about the severity of the winter conditions for deer in their areas.

Owners of dogs found chasing deer or running at large during the closed season for deer can face charges under the Game and Fish Act. The penalty for a first offence is a fine of $155. Repeat offenders can face fines of up to $25,000. In addition, the Act authorized a Conservation Officer to destroy a dog found chasing deer.

The public can also assist by reporting any dogs seen chasing deer to the ministry at 286-1521.

Hyland Crest residents enjoy another active week

Sunday Estella Burch came as usual to read for us. We truly look forward to hearing her read this interesting book. Sunday evening chapel service was conducted by Rev. John Burgess with Louise Leonard playing the organ. John read a letter he received from the Canadian Sunday School Mission where our Sunday night offering was sent this time. Louise Leonard and her husband do a lot of work for this worthwhile cause.

Monday in the afternoon, the residents watched a video called "On Golden Pond", while the Auxiliary were having their monthly meeting. The meeting consisted mostly of arranging dates for the events for 1994.

Tuesday chapel service was conducted by Rev. Brian Parker. It was a memorial service to commemorate the passing of Mrs. Beverly

by Winnifred Barnum

Robinson on January 14, 1994. Our sincere sympathy is extended to her family and friends.

Wednesday, February 2 Doris took us in the bus to Mark's Restaurant for a special luncheon. There were 18 of us in the group. Some of us had Chinese food and others had Canadian. After we had our lunch, Doris drove us down to Kawartha Dairy where we had our usual ice cream cone. We went home via the Scotch Line Road. The volunteers were Jean Robson, Liz Alrutz, and Kathy Woods. The ice cream we had at Kawartha Dairy was donated by Liz. We sincerely thank her.

The Thursday tea party was held in the auditorium. The senior Curling Club ladies brought and served a tasty tea. They were Aileen Blears, Ruth Bishop, Ruth Hamilton, Jean Hewitt, Jean Robson. In the evening Kathy Woods called Bingo in the dining room. We also thank Kathy for playing records.

Friday, February 4 there was no fitness in the morning. In the afternoon Kathy Woods played a selection of old time records at Happy Hour. The residents enjoyed the songs of yesterday.

ADAPTING TO CHANGE

London bog a threatened jewel

Each month I receive many letters pleading for help to save a bit of nature or wilderness from yet another scheme to develop it. Taken together, the letters become a scream to stop ecological damage occurring across the country. Why can't we recognize the magnitude of what's going on? A recent letter from London, and another from Vancouver, give a clue.

The London note contained a clipping from the London Free Press about a plan by developers to build a high rise complex next to Sifton Bog. To London's nature lovers, Sifton Bog is an irreplaceable jewel that represents the last significant remnant of what was once a huge and unique ecosystem. Bogs are said to be as biologically rich and diverse as a tropical rainforest. London environmentalist Anne Hurd is quoted as saying Sifton Bog is home to 56 nationally, provincially or regionally rare plant species, six provincially rare bird species and several regionally rare animals. Nevertheless, bogs are vulnerable because many people view them as hostile, swampy wastelands that breed pests.

In 1971, London zoned the area around Sifton bog for high density residential use but in 1991 the city council reclassified it to open space and urban reserve.

Developers are appealing for a return to the 1971 designation so they can build 10 14-storey buildings with a total of 1,800 units. That could bring up to 5,000 new residents to the edge of the bog and put such pressure on the ecosystem that it could destroy it. The developers argue that they are entitled to reap maximum profit on their original investment.

Our environmental sensitivity and concern have increased tremendously since 1971. If we want to uphold standards and decisions made before the acquisition of new

by David Suzuki

values, attitudes and insights, there would be no hope of genuine progress and improvement in the way we do things.

The other letter came from the CRAB (Create a Real Available Beach), a Vancouver group opposed to a mega-project to develop the Vancouver waterfront even further.

In spite of the building boom in downtown Vancouver (especially during Expo '86), the urban waters that give the city its charm still support a surprisingly rich array of animal and plant species. Toxic effluent from storm sewer outfalls, oil spills from tankers and other ships, illicit or accidental dumping of chemicals by industries and ocean disposal of landfill combine to put enormous pressure on the urban waterfront.

But the short term illusion of prosperity created from the infusion of money and jobs by a large development is irresistible to politicians because it fits their time frame for re-election.

The Vancouver Port Board proposal will involve at least seven acres of landfill in the ocean, seven acres of water coverage by a pier for cruise ships and another acre of coverage for a heliport. It constitutes a major alteration of the harbor that will change water flow and currents and increase pressure from traffic and pollution.

In London and Vancouver, each proposal calls for incremental change that by itself may seem benign. But because change has become such a familiar part of the way we live, we develop a collective amnesia about the past.

We adapt so readily to change that we soon forget what we have lost. Then when another proposal for development is submitted, we weight its impact against the new state we have come to accept as normal. Consider this.

I grew up in London in the late '40s and early '50s. I remember abundant opportunities to bicycle to farms, woods or creeks where I learned some of my most important biology lessons.

The swamp I loved has long been paved over for a shopping centre and apartment complex. Most Londoners today have no knowledge of the city I knew as a youth so their standard to measure the impact of development will not take into account what has already been compromised. And by focusing only on Sifton Bog, they will not recognize the collective effect of all the other developments on the London region.

My father was born in Vancouver in 1909 and remembers forests in what is now downtown, salmon runs in local creeks and halibut and cutthroat trout caught on the city waterfront.

They were long gone by the time I returned to Vancouver in 1963, but since then, I have seen the cancellation of the annual Salmon Derby, tumors in local flounders and polluted Dungeness crab.

Every new proposal — a pulp mill, dam, bridge or high rise — is assessed for its impact on the current environmental conditions, not on the cumulative effect over generations of time. Without a longer memory span, our reference points are too current to see the dimensions of what is happening.

Around the County Town

by Jeanne Sears (call 286-1538)

Many family members from Elmvale, Guilford, Barrie and Ottawa stayed with Mary Cox while in the area for the Henry Gibson funeral.

Irene Minaker of Toronto is staying with May Hicks who is now home from hospital and getting around with her walker.

We all enjoyed a pot luck supper at The Terrace last Friday night. Music was provided by Sid and Earl Cooper and a lovely plant was presented by Helen Skelding to Alice and Lloyd Sedgwick on the occasion of their 67th wedding anniversary.

All good wishes to the following who are on the sick list: Holly and May Kernohan, Ira Carter, Clarence Bunker, Harry Fountain, Kit and Ralph Schroter, Eric Stearnes, Mark Vasey and Wes Baker. We hope we didn't miss anyone, our good wishes go to you too.

Weekly Monday afternoon euchre game winners at St. Paul's were, for most lone hands, Joe McQuire, Marian Ingram, Mary Colman and Hazel Austen who also won the draw.

Enjoying a visit with his mother, Dorothy McElwain was son Trent from Pickering.

Chic and Marian Minaker visited with Ron and Louise Snider in Stouffville recently. They also visited their grandson, John Snider who had been in hospital with pneumonia.

A good time was had by all at Club 35 on February 4 when a pot luck supper and silent auction took place. Euchre games were then held and the winners were Betty Matthews for most lone hands, Jean Randell and Harry Randell, high lady and man and Rhoda Woolner, Ray Sisson and Bill Cowen. The 50-50 draw went to Rhoda Woolner. On February 7 the euchre game winners included Bill Matthews, most lone hands, Doreen Lewis and Norm Lee, high lady and man and Olive Jones, Garth Windsor, Eleanor Bunker and Ken Wallace with the 50-50 draw. Special prizes went to Verna Sawyer and Bill Cowen.

Julie and Meighan Woolfrey from Bridgenorth visited last weekend with Audrey and Bob Vick, Julie's parents.

Jean Lacey entertained last Sunday when Jeunne and Jim Simpson, Carol, Jamie and Jamie Jones and Stephanie and Teresa and Dave Lacey had dinner in The Terrace Lounge. Lucky me got to join them!

Sincere sympathy to the families and friends of the late Cecil Compton, Verna Tiberi, Henry Gibson, Norman Palmer and Ron Tyler whose funerals were last week.

Winners at Branch 636 Legion euchre games for February 4 included Helen Byne and Tony Kenneth for most lone hands, Jean Scadden and Norm Lee with high scores, Jessie Preston, Verna McDonald, Roy McDonald, Jean Scadden, Norm Lee and May Bradbury.

Barbara Berry enjoyed her visit with her sister Ruby and husband Jerry Schmidt one day last week.

Minden Legion Seniors group euchre games held February 1. Winners were Jack Chilton with most lone hands, Mary Wilson, Marg McAfee and Marie Dennie. February 8 winners included Pearl Cowen, most lone hands, Jack Chilton, Mary Colman and Joe McQuire. Games are held Tuesday afternoons and they have some lively games there.

Bridge games are also held every Tuesday at Stanhope Centre at 1 o'clock. The winners for February 8 included John Klok, Lil Gorveatt and Earl Hayne. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Tuesday evening was a busy one at Gelert Centre when the euchre game winners included Reta Crofts, most lone hands, Marian Minaker, Betty Hicks, Chic Minaker and Truman McNeill.

IN MEMORIAM

HOWE, Vera - In loving memory of my dear wife who passed away February 15, 1988. I think of you in silence I often speak your name But all I have are memories And a picture in a frame. It broke my heart to lose you, But you didn't go alone, For part of me went with you The day God called you home. Sadly missed and always loved, Your husband, Henry.

HOWE, Vera - In loving memory of our dear mother, grandmother and great-grandmother who passed away February 15, 1988.

Though your smile is gone forever

And your hand we cannot touch, Still we have so many memories

Of the one we loved so much.

Your memory is our keepsake,

With which we'll never part,

God has you in his keeping

We have you in our hearts.

Loved and remembered always,

Your Family.
